

DEONTOLOGY

Study program	Veterinary Medicine
Year of study	VI
Semester	I
Regime of discipline	DOB
Category of discipline	Dsc
Number of lectures hours per week	0.5
Number of seminar/laboratory/project hours per week	1
Total number of hours according to the curriculum: lectures/seminars/laboratory/project	5 hours of course/ 10 hours of laboratory
Number of transferable credits	1

SPECIFIC SKILLS

Professional Competence	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students' acquisition of the obligations and skills of veterinarians in direct relationship with patients and animal owners. • Students' knowledge of the necessary documents and procedures used by the Ethics and Litigation Committee in the event of complaints or violations of the rules of ethics and behavior of veterinarians.
--------------------------------	--

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Knowledge	The student/graduate describes the internal regulations and legislative structures (the functioning of the College of Veterinarians of Romania) and European legislation in the veterinary medical field, applies the principles of bioethics and veterinary ethics.
Skills	The student/graduate applies, analyzes and implements the current veterinary health legislation, the norms of ethics and veterinary medical deontology.
Responsibility and autonomy	The student/graduate evaluates and plans the particular strategic program of the activity area, correlates the results of laboratory analyses with the concrete situation in the field and with the legislation in force. The student/graduate demonstrates the ability to organize a veterinary medical practice by applying the legislation in force.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

General objective of the course	Knowledge of the Code of Medical Veterinary Ethics and the Superior and County Ethics and Litigation Commissions
Specific objectives	Knowledge of the Veterinary Medical Code of Ethics: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Professional duties of veterinarians. 2. Knowledge related to professional advertising. 3. Rights and duties towards colleagues and collaborators. 4. Rights and duties towards animal owners. 5. Other duties of veterinarians. 6. Knowledge of the superior and county ethics and litigation commissions. 7. Competences and powers. 8. Composition of committees. 9. Meetings and decision-making procedure.

COURSE CONTENT

LECTURES	Number of hours
- Veterinary ethics issues	3
- Forms of legal liability in veterinary health activity	2
SEMINAR/LABORATORY	Number of hours
• Documents and procedure used by the Ethics and Litigation Commission in resolving complaints of violations of the rules of ethics and conduct of veterinarians	5
• Registration and management of medicines and veterinary products in veterinary medicine	5

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

- Lazău, Al. (2003) Veterinary legislation and ethics, Ed. Mirton, Timișoara.
- Lazău, Al. (2003) Legislation for the organization of veterinary services, Ed. Mirton, Timișoara.
-  Code of Veterinary Medical Ethics of October 25, 2013
(<https://cmvro.ro/files/download/legislatie/exercitarea-profesiei/codul-de-deontologie-mv.pdf>)

ASSESSMENT

Activity type	Assessment criteria	Assessment methods	Percentage of final grade
Lectures
Seminar/laboratory/clinical sessions	Final check	Deontological case presentation	100%
Other activities

Course coordinator: Assist. Prof. PhD Alexandru GLIGOR

Practical activities coordinator L/S/P: Assist. Prof. PhD Alexandru GLIGOR